

Choose your meme

Directions: Now that you've read a little bit about the history and cultural significance of memes, please choose 1 meme that you find funny, interesting or worth talking more about. Paste an image of it below and answer the questions about it. (Please do be thoughtful with your choice and make sure NOT to choose something that is in direct opposition to LS's core values.)

Your meme:

1. Why did you choose this meme? OR What do you find interesting about it?
2. What do you need to know to understand why this is funny? (Think about the cultural or generational reference points you'd need to have in order to really understand it.)
3. Memes often mean different things to different people. Explain 2 different meanings that people might take from this meme. (For example: "This meme is funny because..." or "Someone might say that it's offensive or stupid because...")
4. What do you think the message is?
