

Cosby Reflection

Directions: Please respond to the questions below in complete sentences. There is no right or wrong answer, just make sure to explain your thinking for each question.

1. Do Bill Cosby's actions mean we should BOTH stop watching him as an actor/comedian AND dismiss his work? Explain.
2. What do you think of the assertion that "talent is more important than morals"?
3. Is it possible for a creator's actions to escalate to a level where you think we should stop following them or their work? Where, if at all, is that line for you?
