

YOUR NAME:

TV SHOW:

Research questions

1. Details about the production/behind the scenes of the show: (network, years it was on the air, important cast members (lead actors))
2. What was the plot of the show? (storyline, relationships between characters, etc.)
3. Where does the show supposedly take place?
4. Who was the show written for? Who did the network want to watch the show? (audience)
5. What did Americans think about the show when it was on the air? How do we know that?
6. Was this show like any other shows at the time or was it different in some way? Explain.
7. What made this show influential/important? Consider what made it unique.
8. What was going on in America historically/culturally at the time the show was on the air? How did the show connect to or show that?
9. What can we learn about America, it's values and culture through this tv show?
10. Are there any shows like this still on the air? If so, what shows?

SOURCE #1:

Citation:

NOTES:

Which research questions do the notes above address? _____

SOURCE #2:

Citation:

NOTES:

Which research questions do the notes above address? _____

SOURCE #3:

Citation:

NOTES:

Which research questions do the notes above address? _____